

PRESS RELEASE – 6 JUNE 2019

Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) signed between ACFE SA and ISACA SA

South Africa Chapter

PRESS RELEASE

TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE MEDIA

On the 6th of June 2019, the MoU between the ACFE SA and ISACA SA was resigned.

The ACFE SA and ISACA SA have been MoU partners since 2014, and the reason for the resigning of the MoU was to ensure that the respective partners work closely together in the fight against fraud and corruption in Southern Africa.

Arlene-Lynn Volmink was elected as President of ISACA SA for the 2018 - 2020 term from former Presidents, Mr Kenneth Chikwanha and subsequently Mr Tichaona Zororo.

Jaco de Jager, CEO of the ACFE SA and Arlene-Lynn Volmink, President of ISACA SA, described this as a new opportunity to ensure a coherent global approach to combating business fraud and corruption is the most effective tool for bringing down levels of corporate fraud and corruption and concretising a solid culture of good cooperate governance in business generally.

ACFE SA's Mission: The mission of the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners is to reduce the incidence of fraud and white-collar crime and to assist the members in fraud detection and deterrence.

ISACA'S Purpose is to help you realise the positive potential of technology and its Promise is to inspire confidence that enables innovation through technology. The primary purpose of the Chapter is to promote the education of individuals for the improvement and development of their capabilities relating to the auditing of, management consulting in, or direct management of the fields of IT governance, IS audit, cybersecurity, control and assurance.

To demonstrate their partnership, the ACFE SA and ISACA SA are readily taking every opportunity thrown their way; and have scheduled an event that will be taking place on Tuesday the 11th of June 2019.

Theme: Re-inventing your digital toolbox
