

MOU signed between the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners South Africa Chapter (ACFE SA) & South African Professional Polygraph Association (SAPPA).

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2018/07/18

On Wednesday, 18 July 2018, in Centurion – Pretoria, the ACFE SA and SAPPA signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU).

The two organizations expressed their intention to cooperate by formalizing their relationship with each other on the terms set out in this agreement (MOU), which highlights its aim to promote cooperation and a coherent global approach to take up action against business fraud and guide the business sector in forming a solid culture of good corporate governance.

Jaco de Jager, Chief Executive Officer of the ACFE SA alongside Dawid van Wyngaard, President of SAPPA, and Jayan Singh witnessed the signing ceremony.

ACFE SA and SAPPA joined forces with each other to advance each of their efforts, in their respective professions, to combat fraud, and collaborate with other bodies to address the challenges of business fraud.

If you would like to read the MOU , please click here.

Issued by the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (South African Chapter)

Enquiries: Valencia Keitumetse Magopa

***Ends*****